Food Tour (Daytrip)

Heritage Walking + Food Tour (Duration: 4 hrs) – Rate: RM155 per person (SIC-Min of 2) / Pick up: 8.30am

This walkabout tour commences at the Kuching waterfront, with a visit to the “TuaPek Kong” Chinese temple and Chinese Historical Museum where the historical Fort Margherita can be viewed on the other side of the Sarawak River. From the temple you will walk through Carpenter Street, consisting of old shop houses on both sides of the narrow street passage. At the end of the street junction you pass by the General Post Office. Also situated around this area are historical buildings and monuments built during the era of the Brooke dynasty which consists of the Round Tower, the Pavilion, the Brooke Memorial Monument, the Square Tower and the Old Court House.

Proceed to India Street, a pedestrians’ shopping mall specializing in local and imported textiles. From India Street, walk through a narrow covered passageway where you will find a Masjid India on your left with very low walls built sometime in the mid 19th century. Just as you reach the end of the passageway, your senses will detect the slight aroma of Indian spices which navigates you to Gambier Street. Proceed to Brooke Dockyard and Dockyard lane passing by the Old Fire Brigade Station (known now as the open air market). Make a stop at the Open Air hawker stalls for a coffee / tea break with local steam buns. Our last stop is a direct walk pass the Merdeka Square to the St Thomas’s Cathedral for a short visit. The tour would then conclude at the Urang Sarawak Museum. Pick up from the Sarawak Museum and then proceed for lunch at a local cafe serving authentic Sarawak hawker food such as KoloMee (Noodles), Sarawak Laksa etc. After lunch, make a stop at the Cat Monument at Padungan (Chinatown) and have a stroll around the local shops here. Return to hotel. (Lunch included)

Siniawan Food Market (Available on Friday, Saturday and Sunday only)

Siniawan is an old and once forgotten town 21 km away, an old town rich in culture, history and heritage values. Recent years, efforts have been made to revive the traditions and cultures as well as the night market of this old town which is seeing results and tourists are now flocking in during the weekends and local economy is greatly improved. Siniawan town has a different meaning to most people in Kuching, it is famously known as the “Siniawan Night Market”. Today Siniawan is not only a historical town, but a quaint “village” with a thriving bird’s nest business. The residents have also started a regular weekend night market. The 2 main rows of wooden shop-houses have been modified into hawker food stalls during the weekends in the evening and tables and chairs are set right in the middle of the road in between.

Duration : 3 - 4 hours Departure Time : 6:00 pm (Weekend Only)

Pick up from hotel and depart to Siniawan old town to enjoy a moment of old town feel and also to visit the food market. Set up by the folks / kapitan, between two rows of wooden shops, you will find a stretch of stalls selling local food and cakes. Its not only Chinese food, you will get Malays and natives selling there too. The old quiet bazaar is brought to life every weekend. Local folks sing on stage, red lanterns stringed from one end to the other. The night market is known for its delicacies like glutinous rice in pitcher plant, grilled fish, seafood, BBQ chicken wings, satay, kuih and many more. Others include fruits, vegetables and daily necessities.

Includes : ☑ Land Transfers with English speaking tour guide. ☑ 6% GST
